ON BARTLETT DAM RD, TO SB COVE CAMP SITE

While following Bartlett Dam Rd, just about when you see the lake in view for the first time, keep a lookout for a sign to turn left, onto Forest Svc Rd 459. Make the next left (onto 459), heading towards the SB Cove/Campground.

NOTE: when you make this left, the street sign will say “North Bartlett Dam Rd” – which is the same as Forest Svc Rd 459, for part of the way.

After about 2 miles on this road, 459 branches off to the right - be sure to bear left (straight) continuing on North Bartlett Dam Rd. Note that as you come around the bend and drive straight through the larger parking lot, you will also see signs for Yellow Cliffs boat launch site.

Go past the Yellow Cliffs boat launch/large parking lot - you've finally arrived at SB Cove campsite! Look for signs pointing to where we will be located.

SB Cove: Our group will be located somewhere in this area, along the beach – look for signs, banners and blue balloons for Arizona Adventurers
